

Munawar MIRZA .Profile

Presently working as a consultant for ICFJ, International centre for Journalists, Washington DC, based as TV course director, in Centre of Excellence for Journalism, Institute of Business Administration, Karachi,

Munawar Mirza is an award winning TV Journalist who has reported for the last three decades on major beats including political, economic, crises and international affairs. His special field of interest is human angle stories which won him three National Awards in reporting. His stories, documentaries, motivational songs have contributed significantly in creating awareness on social issues like environment, health care, literacy, community development, tolerance and youth

Munawar Mirza has covered TV news assignments in US, China, Korea, Malaysia, Thailand, Singapore, Central, Middle and West Asia and also reported for CNN World. He has held senior management and operational positions in PTV and as Director News in Private channels including News One, Indus TV News and Business Plus.

Munawar MIRZA is a prolific writer. His analytical articles on International and National affairs appear every Sunday in Jang daily, the largest selling Urdu daily in the world. He also writes in English for Tribune which collaborates with New York Times. He is an experienced TV anchor and host and participates as an expert in TV networks programs. His TV program WORLD is considered to be an authoritative analysis on current international issues which appear with the event.

Munawar Mirza has an intensive and extensive experience of teaching and training in Media and has been the head of Media Studies at Bahria University Karachi. Has taught at Karachi University at BS and Masters levels. He is a Media specialist and conducts trainings for professionals such as PTV academy, Association of Pakistan Television Journalists, Karachi Union of Journalists and other professional bodies. His field of specialty is the use of modern technology for News reporting and productions.

