

LEARNING OUTCOMES OF 2 YEARS

ASSOCIATE DEGREE IN PHYSICAL THERAPY (ADP-PT)

- Graduates will have solid foundational knowledge of human anatomy, physiology, and basic physical therapy principles relevant to assisting in patient care.
- They will be able to perform basic physical therapy procedures, including therapeutic exercises, electrotherapy, and manual techniques under supervision.
- They will demonstrate competence in patient assessment, documentation, and assisting in treatment planning as guided by licensed physical therapists.
- Graduates will develop good communication skills to interact effectively with patients, their families, and healthcare teams in a professional environment.
- They will practice according to ethical and legal standards and show responsibility and respect while dealing with patients from diverse backgrounds.
- They will understand the importance of infection control, patient safety, and clinical protocols in healthcare settings.
- Graduates will be able to support health promotion and rehabilitation activities in hospitals, clinics, and community centers.
- They will show readiness for lifelong learning and the ability to upgrade their skills through further education and training.